Hackney:

“A former industrial hub, East London’s Hackney has undergone huge regeneration in recent years to become the city’s most liveable borough. Home to young creative types, it’s an area with strong community ties and is known for its great food and unmatched nightlife.” (culturetrip.com)

Islington:

“Just four miles from the heart of central London, this trendy, liberal borough has an enviable property market, world-class theatres and an array of mouth-watering restaurants.” (onedome.com)

Camden:

“This dynamic central borough attracts a mix of young professionals and affluent families to its treasure trove of cool bars, sparkling markets and attractive period homes.” (onedome.com)
